Nursing Home Employee Bound Over for Trial on Sexual Assault Charges

Antonio Nieto (DOB 07/01/72) was bound over for trial after a preliminary hearing today on charges of sexual assault involving two female patients at a Broomfield nursing home.

Nieto is charged with two counts of sexual assault on an at-risk adult (F2) and four counts of sexual assault (F4) involving two female patients at Broomfield Skilled Nursing, 12975 Sheridan Blvd., where he was employed as a certified nursing assistant. The charges allege that Nieto sexually assaulted a 73-year-old patient on August 14. The charges allege that he sexually assaulted a 59-year-old patient between July 10 and July 19.

An additional count of unlawful sexual contact of an at-risk adult (F3) was filed involving a 93-year-old patient. A preliminary hearing on this charge is set for 1:30 p.m. Oct. 17 in Division 1 of Broomfield County Court.

Nieto will be arraigned on the charges at 8:30 a.m. Nov. 7 in Division A.
