Man Who Crashed into Two State Patrol Cars Sentenced

Keith Kilbey (DOB 05/26/1990), who crashed into two Colorado State Patrol cars while drunk and stoned, pleaded guilty Wednesday to driving under the influence and was sentenced to 30 days in-home detention and 18 months probation.

He also must perform 48 hours of community service, pay a $600 fine and restitution, which will be determined later.

Kilbey, of Arvada, was arrested January 11 after he crashed into two Colorado State Patrol cars that were pulled over on the side of a ramp on Interstate-25 to Interstate 76. The troopers were investigating an accident that had taken place earlier. They were not injured in the crash.

Kilbey had a blood alcohol content of .268 and 10 nanograms active THC.

Kilbey originally was charged with DUI and careless driving. The latter charge was dismissed as part of the plea agreement.
