Aurora Man Charged with First-degree Murder in Death of his Father

17th Judicial District Attorney Dave Young announced Tuesday that Jason Paul Beamer has been charged with first-degree murder in the death of his father, Robert Beamer.

Westminster police responding to a 911 call on November 17 found Robert Beamer, 68, beaten and covered in blood at 7250 Newton Street. He was transported to Good Samaritan Hospital and later died of his injuries.

Beamer (DOB 01/22/78), of Aurora, is charged with first-degree murder after deliberation (F1), first-degree assault with a deadly weapon causing serious bodily injury (F3), felony menacing (F5) and one count of violent crime as a sentencing enhancer.

He was advised of the charges Monday in Adams County Court. His preliminary hearing is set for 1:30 p.m. on January 15 in Division Q of Adams County District Court.

The filing of a criminal charge is merely a formal accusation that an individual committed a crime under Colorado laws. A defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
