Lynn Kubic Sentenced to One Year Probation for Animal Cruelty

Lynn Kubic, owner of Jurassic Pets, was sentenced Wednesday to one year of probation and ordered to have no contact with animals for animal cruelty involving her pet store in Thornton.

Adams County Judge Brian Bowen also ordered Kubic to perform 100 hours of community service and pay a $100 fine. He also ordered that she is barred from working with animals as a condition of probation.

Kubic (DOB 05/21/61) had pleaded guilty to one count of misdemeanor animal cruelty.

Charges were filed against Kubic, Kenneth Mark Kubic (DOB 06/14/54) and Brian Kubic (DOB 09-11-93) in March 2015 following an investigation by Thornton Police Department after complaints were received about gross neglect of animals at Jurassic Pets at 10380 Washington Street in Thornton.

Brian Kubic previously pleaded guilty to one count of misdemeanor animal cruelty and was sentenced to one year of probation. He also was ordered not to work with animals until he received training or education in the field.

Kenneth Kubic was convicted of 18 counts of animal cruelty after his trial in May and was sentenced to four years of probation and fined $1,800.
