Juvenile Charged as Adult with Attempted Murder in Police Car Shooting

17th Judicial District Attorney Dave Young announced Tuesday that Salvador Ivan Madrid is charged as an adult with attempted first-degree murder and attempted assault for shooting at a police car.

Madrid (DOB 12/05/2000) fired at a patrol car containing a police officer and a passenger on May 29 near the intersection of Pitkin Street and Eisenhower Way in Aurora.

He is charged with one count of attempted first-degree murder after deliberation (F2), two counts of attempted first-degree murder extreme indifference (F2), three counts of first-degree assault (F3) and one count of possession of a handgun by a juvenile (M2).

Madrid was advised of the charges Monday in Adams County District Court. His case is set for preliminary hearing and reverse transfer hearing at 8:30 a.m. June 21 in Division E of Adams County District Court. He is held on $150,000 bond.

The filing of a criminal charge is merely a formal accusation that an individual committed a crime under Colorado laws. A defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
