

NEWS RELEASE

October 16, 2017
Contact: Sue Lindsay
Public Information
303-835-5639

Former Commerce City Police Officer Convicted of Unlawful Sexual Contact

Former Commerce City Police Officer John Reinhart was convicted Monday of two misdemeanor charges of unlawful sexual contact with two women.

Reinhart (DOB 05/27/93) was arresting the women for DUI on two separate occasions in December 2015 when they said he made advances on them and fondled them. The incidents involved a 34-year-old woman on Dec. 6, 2015 and a 36-year-old woman on Dec. 26, 2015.

An Adams County Court jury convicted Reinhart Monday on two charges of misdemeanor unlawful sexual contact. He was acquitted on a third charge involving a 22-year-old woman during her arrest for DUI in September 2015.

Sentencing is set for 9 a.m. January 3 in Division 8 of Adams County Court.

Reinhart resigned from the police department after the charges arose in March 2016.

###