Dreion Dearing Has First Advisement in Shooting Death of Deputy

Dreion Martise Dearing appeared in Adams County District Court Friday for first advisement for his arrest on charges of first-degree murder in the death of Adams County Deputy Sheriff Heath Gumm.

Dearing (DOB 10/31/95) was arrested Wednesday. He is due in court at 10 a.m. Wednesday for filing of formal charges by the District Attorney's Office.

The affidavit in the case is sealed. No further information is available from the District Attorney's Office.
