Man Charged with Attempted Murder and Assault in Confrontation with Deputies

17th Judicial District Attorney Dave Young announced Wednesday that Garron Kelly Torgerson has been charged with attempted murder and assault in a confrontation with Adams County deputies last weekend.

Deputies responded early Sunday morning to a call in the area of 5500 block of Riverdale Lane in Adams County. Torgerson is accused of ramming a patrol vehicle with a stolen vehicle and trying to hit deputies with the car.

Torgerson (DOB 05/27/97) is charged with two counts of attempted first-degree murder with extreme indifference (F2), two counts of attempted first-degree assault (F4), one count of criminal mischief (F5), vehicular eluding (F5) and two counts of aggravated first-degree motor vehicle theft (F5).

He was advised of the charges Wednesday in Adams County Court. A preliminary hearing is set for February 12 in Division 3.

The filing of a criminal charge is merely a formal accusation that an individual committed a crime under Colorado laws. A defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
