Woman Pleads Guilty in Wrong Way Crash that Killed Two

Kimberly Rodriquez Roldan pleaded guilty Thursday to vehicular homicide and vehicular assault while driving under the influence in a head-on crash that killed two people when she drove the wrong way on I-25.

Roldan (DOB 10/08/93) was driving her Jeep Grand Cherokee southbound in a northbound I-25 HOV lane near 58th Avenue on January 27 when she hit a Honda CRV head-on. Miguel Ramirez-Gutierrez, 47, and his 17-year-old son, Michael Ramirez-Muro, were killed. Two other passengers in that vehicle, Maria Muro-Palacios, 45, and Salma Ramires-Muro, 20, suffered serious injuries and were rushed to the hospital by ambulance.

Roldan pleaded guilty to two counts of DUI vehicular homicide, one count of DUI vehicular assault and two counts of careless driving.

A sentencing hearing is set for 8:30 a.m. October 22 in Division G of Adams County District Court.
