Aurora Man Sentenced to 63 Years in Prison in Beating Death of his Father

Jason Paul Beamer was sentenced Monday to 63 years in prison in the death of his father, Robert Beamer, in 2015, and other charges.

Westminster police responding to a 911 call on November 17, 2015, found Robert Beamer, 68, beaten and covered in blood at 7250 Newton Street. He was brutally beaten, suffering multiple rib and facial fractures and severe injury to his brain. He was transported to Good Samaritan Hospital and later died of his injuries.

Beamer (DOB 01/22/78), of Aurora, was convicted of second-degree murder and menacing in October in the death of his father. He pleaded guilty to second-degree assault of a peace officer in another case.

Adams County District Judge .Sharon Holbrook sentenced him in the aggravated range to 63 years in prison in both cases.
