Two Men Charged in Commerce City Shooting Death

17th Judicial District Attorney Dave Young announced Friday that Kyle Schneider and David Jacobs have been charged with first-degree murder in the shooting death of Larry Gomez in Commerce City.

Commerce City police responding to 7075 Garden Lane found Gomez, 67, unresponsive with a gunshot wound on May 8. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

Schneider (DOB 12/24/90) and Jacobs (DOB 07/10/78) are charged with one count of first-degree murder after deliberation, three counts of attempted first-degree murder with extreme indifference and one count of crime of violence, a sentencing enhancer.

They were advised of the charges Friday. Preliminary hearings are set for both defendants on July 31 in Division G of Adams County District Court.

The filing of a criminal charge is merely a formal accusation that an individual committed a crime under Colorado law. A defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
